

The proposal

Hundreds of international, national and civil society actors have called for and fed into the design of a global platform to strengthen collective response and education in crises.

What will it do?

- Inspire political commitment
- Joint planning and response
- Generate and disburse new funding
- Strengthen capacity
- Improve accountability

How will it operate?

1. Acceleration Facility: Invests in existing actors to speed up education response
2. Breakthrough Fund: Country level engagement, including rapid response, multi-year support and dedicated pop-up funds
